

2009 Winter Meeting

Sherman Currin, Top Retailers, Salespersons and Communities Honored at MHISC's Winter Meeting

The manufactured home industry joined together January 22nd to honor outstanding members for their accomplishments.

Sherman Currin of Champion Homes was inducted into the SC Manufactured Housing Hall of Fame. Hall of Famer Barry MacDowell inducted his longtime friend, praising his service to the industry and the association.

Kent-Gault Manufactured Homes of Mauldin was honored as Retail Center of the Year for the State. Katrina White of Clayton Homes of Beaufort was named Retail Salesperson of the Year. Crossroads, a manufactured subdivision in Aiken was voted Community of the Year.

The honorees were elected by the membership of MHISC.

Mandy McGuire was recognized as an Outstanding Retail Salesperson for her service with Central Carolina Homes in Sumter. Ledbetter Housing in Aiken and Clayton Homes of Beaufort were named Outstanding Retail Centers. Outstanding Manufactured Home Communities honored were Strawberry Station, Moncks Corner; Jensen's Southern Palms in Ladson, and Shannonwood Community in Moncks Corner.

The MHISC Board of Directors, Dealer's Roundtable, the association's Image and Professionalism and Membership Committees met as part of the two-day event.

The Winter Meeting and Awards Banquet was held at the Hilton Columbia Center Hotel and catered by Ruth's Chris restaurant.

2009 Winter Meeting Photos